2. BUSINESS OVERVIEW AND PERFORMANCE

2.1 APRR and AREA

2.1.1 Business background

APRR is a 2,318km motorway network located in the east of France. The APRR Group consists of the APRR concession, the AREA concession, and a minority stake in the ADELAC concession. APRR provides intercity road connections between major cities within its network including Paris and Lyon, which are critical connections for light vehicles, as well as a primary route for French and European road freight.

Tolls escalate annually in February by a percentage of French CPI, plus supplemental increases as agreed with the French State as a result of APRR funded capex projects. The current toll escalation formulae are shown below and the applicable tolls are presented on the APRR website<sup>1</sup>.

Table 3 – APRR toll escalation

	APRR	AREA
2022–2023	70% x CPI + 0.25%	70% x CPI + 0.26%
2024+	70% x CPI	70% x CPI

The APRR concession expires in 2035, and the AREA concession in 2036. A map of the APRR and AREA networks is shown below.

2.2 ADELAC

2.2.1 Business background

ADELAC, otherwise known as the A41 north, is a 20km two lane motorway which connects Annecy in France and Geneva in Switzerland, offering fast transit for commuters and facilitating leisure traffic between Geneva and the French Alps.

The road provides a continuous motorway connection to the A41 (south) and the A40 (west). APRR is the operator of the ADELAC Concession.

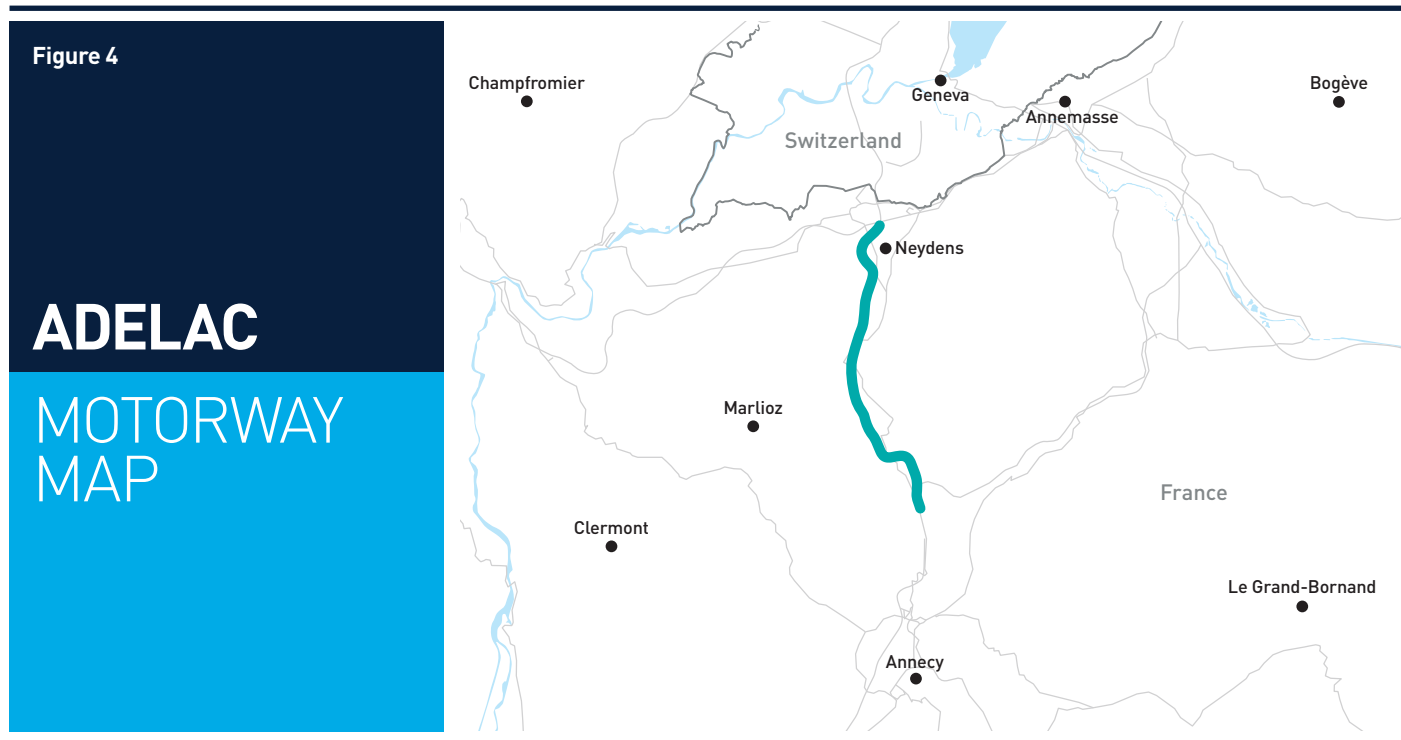

Under the concession contract, tolls typically increase each year in February by French CPI plus a fixed percentage. The current toll escalation formulae are shown below and the applicable tolls are presented on the ADELAC website<sup>2</sup>. ADELAC's concession agreement enables ADELAC, within certain limits, to allocate its annual toll increase to specific toll stations.

During 2021, ADELAC and the Ministry of Transport had separately negotiated a sustainable tolling solution at the Cruseilles toll station and main plaza to align the toll prices at the entry points and improve safety. The outcome of this negotiation resulted in a one-off increase of the toll price at the Cruseilles toll station. In return, the toll escalation formulae for ADELAC was altered as outlined in Table 9.

Table 9 – ADELAC toll escalation

Prior agreement		Updated agreement
2022–2030	CPI + 1.0%	2022	CPI
2030+	CPI	2023– 27	CPI + 1.0%
		2028	CPI + 0.41%
		2029+	CPI

The ADELAC concession expires in 2060.

2.3 Dulles Greenway

2.3.1 Business background

Dulles Greenway is a 22km tolled motorway in northern Virginia, USA, which runs from Dulles International Airport to the town of Leesburg. Dulles Greenway is part of a key route in one of the fastest growing and most affluent counties in the United States. As Loudoun County continues to grow, it is anticipated that Dulles Greenway will be well positioned to provide capacity, a quality service and attract a greater share of future corridor growth, with the ability to expand to meet future demand.

Atlas Arteria holds a 100% economic interest in Dulles Greenway. Tolls can be charged on Dulles Greenway until 2056. Tolls are set on application to the Virginia State Corporation Commission ('SCC'). On 26 April 2021, the SCC provided for toll increases for the 2021 and 2022 years as outlined in the table below.

Future toll rates beyond 2022 will continue to be determined by the SCC under the Virginia Highway Corporation Act of 1988 (HCA) in accordance with Section §56-542, where the SCC shall 'have the duty and authority to approve or revise the toll rates charged by the operator'. Toll rates should be set at a level that:

1. 'is reasonable to the user in relation to the benefit obtained'; and
2. 'will not materially discourage use of the roadway by the public'; and
3. 'will provide the operator with no more than a reasonable rate of return as determined by the SCC'.

Due to the passage of new legislation, the HCA was amended, effective July 1, 2021. The key changes to the HCA from these amendments:

- prevent the SCC approving more than one year of toll rate increases at a time (where previously approvals have granted multiple increases for up to five years as part of any one rate case submission); and
- defined the threshold at which toll increases would be considered to 'materially discourage use' as a 3% fall in traffic, adjusted for population growth.

Table 13 – Dulles Greenway toll escalation

2021 (effective 5 May 2021)	0%	5.3%
2022 (from 1 January 2022)	0%	5.0%

2. BUSINESS OVERVIEW AND PERFORMANCE

2.3.2 Business performance

Stand-alone accounts are prepared by Dulles Greenway (or TRIP II) using US GAAP and since 2019 have been prepared in accordance with ASC606 for statutory reporting purposes. For comparative purposes however, revenue in 2019, 2020 and 2021 in the table below is shown in accordance with ASC605 rather than ASC606 and are therefore in line with IFRS accounting standards (excluding IFRIC 12). Operating expenses exclude project improvement expenses and easement accruals (which are otherwise considered as operating expenses under US GAAP). A reconciliation between EBITDA calculated under these arrangements and IFRS is provided for 2019, 2020 and 2021.

The chart above presents the maturity profile for debt outstanding as at 31 December 2021 and also provides the total debt service (principal and accrued interest) payable each year to 2036. The debt service profile extends to 2056.

There are two distribution tests, being the Minimum Coverage Ratio (MCR) and the Additional Coverage Ratio (ACR) which are both tested annually at 31 December and calculated in accordance with the table below. If the MCR is not met, distributions from Dulles Greenway are in lock up for 12 months. Where the ACR is not met, distributions from Dulles Greenway are in lock up for 36 months.

The debt service which is included in the MCR and ACR calculations includes the bonds that were repurchased and cancelled, net of the percentage of the discount at which they were acquired (US$2.7m in 2020 and US$0.2m in 2019).

2.4 Warnow Tunnel

2.4.1 Business background

The Warnow Tunnel is a 2km toll road with two lanes in each direction, including a 0.8km tunnel under the Warnow River. It opened to traffic in September 2003 and allows users to cross under the Warnow River which divides Rostock. Most of the residential areas are located on the western side and most of the industrial areas are on the eastern side of the river which includes the Rostock Port, a roll on roll off freight and passenger ferry port for Baltic shipping and a bulk port. A Cruise Ship Terminal is located on the western side of the river.

Tolls may be escalated annually and are subject to the approval of the Ministry of Energy, Infrastructure and State Development for the State of Mecklenburg-Vorpommern. Potential toll increases are linked to pre-tax equity IRR of the concession (see table 19 below). Since 2013, Warnow Tunnel tolls have been increasing on the basis of a calculation using inflation and 50% of GDP growth. Toll increases have historically been typically implemented in November and based on inflation and 50% of GDP growth figures, from the prior year and in Q1 of the relevant year. Applicable toll prices as of December 2021 are presented on the Warnow Tunnel website<sup>3</sup>.

Table 19 – Warnow Tunnel toll escalation

Pre tax IRR < 17%	Tolls may rise at a rate higher than inflation
Pre tax IRR 17–25%	Tolls linked to inflation
Pre tax IRR > 25%	Tolls remain fixed

Atlas Arteria has a 100% interest in the concessionaire Warnowquerung GmbH & Co. KG, the concessionaire partnership, and its general partner. The concession expires in 2053.
